

Brilliant Graduate Career Handbook

Judith Done, Rachel Mulvey

**Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks*

Download

Read Online

#4675366 in eBooks 2016-09-15 2016-09-15 File Name: B01LXU2AMY | File size: 62.Mb

Judith Done, Rachel Mulvey : Brilliant Graduate Career Handbook before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Brilliant Graduate Career Handbook:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A must have book for students, graduates and career professionals!!By Helen WebsterThis is definitely a book every graduate needs to succeed in graduate employment! It contains vital information in bite size chunks backing each section up with such brilliant case studies to show how this information has been applied. As a professional working in graduate careers I will most definitely be recommending it to the students and graduates I work with!

The brand new 3rd edition of one of the UK's bestselling graduate career guides that's sold over 4,100 copies. Providing essential, life-changing guidance to help students get started on their graduate career, this indispensable guide helps readers discover how to make sense of their opportunities, weigh up their options and how to make the right choices. Packed with vital information and powerful ideas, tactics and strategies, it coaches readers in the positive mindset required to land a brilliant career. This new edition has been thoroughly updated with new content on managing the transition from student to graduate; updated data, stats and examples; and a full glossary of terms. There is also a section help tutors with teaching employability and career skills.

About the Author Dr Judith Done is a visiting research fellow at the University of Chester, where she was formerly Director of Careers and Employability. She is a fellow of the Institute of Career Guidance (ICG) and an associate fellow of the British Psychological Society. Her working life has been spent in career guidance as a practitioner, trainer and manager. Her research interests are in career guidance, personal development and interpersonal communication. Judith as a volunteer advice worker, school governor and occasional freelance trainer. Professor Rachel Mulvey is Dean of Psychology at the University of East London, and Associate Fellow at the University of Warwick Institute of Employment Research. For many years, Rachel worked as a careers adviser in schools and colleges, before moving into the management and training of career professionals. She was awarded a National Teaching Fellowship for her work on enhancing undergraduates' career readiness, and researches the way workers across EU learn skills and transfer them from job to job. Her second Pearson title, Brilliant Passing Psychometric Tests, was published in 2015.