From Saqi Books : British Egyptian Relations: From Suez to the Present Day (SOAS Middle East Issues) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised British Egyptian Relations: From Suez to the Present Day (SOAS Middle East Issues):

This account of the first major forum to review relations between Britain and Egypt, held in London in 2006, demonstrates how political, economic and cultural interaction between the countries has developed since the Suez invasion of 1956. In addition to providing a historical assessment, it suggests ways forward in both bilateral and international contexts. Egyptian and British contributors include government ministers and specialists in history, economy, Egyptology, business, education, culture and international affairs. Contributors include: Roger Owen, Hugh Roberts, Mustapha Kamel al-Sayyid, Heba Handoussa, Fekri Hassan, Yousry Nasrallah and Penelope Lively.

About the Author Ayman El-Desouky is a lecturer in Arabic and Comparative Literature at SOAS. He has lectured on Arabic Language and Literature at Johns Hopkins and at Harvard. He is currently preparing a study on the conception and practice of Sacred Discourse in modern Arabic literature.
