Rowan Riley : Hospitality, Human Services, and Tourism (Great Careers With a High School Diploma) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Hospitality, Human Services, and Tourism (Great Careers With a High School Diploma):

A career in the fields of hospitality, human services, and tourism is a good fit for those who want to have an effect on people's everyday lives. These service professions can lead to exciting experiences while earning a good income, and they range from those that require little training to those that require professional certification. The eight jobs profiled in this new book provide growth opportunities and, in some cases, possibilities for self-employment. Career profiles include: bartender; baseball umpire; concierge; cook; dry cleaner; flight attendant; floral arranger; umpire; and, waiter/waitress and more.
