Dr. Seuss's "Oh, the Places You'll Go!" has been a perennial graduation gift since its publication in 1990, but let's get real: in today's economy, graduates are lucky to go anywhere offering health benefits and a steady paycheck. Full of comforting wisdom and advice about the postcollege experience, The Graduates is the anti-"Oh, the Places You'll Go"—a smart, funny essay collection about college grads entering the worst job market in decades.
