Anton N Oleinik : The Invisible Hand of Power: An Economic Theory of Gate Keeping (Modern Heterodox ECON) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Invisible Hand of Power: An Economic Theory of Gate Keeping (Modern Heterodox ECON):

This is an innovative study of the techniques of domination, based on financial markets, judicial systems, academia and international relations, across North America and post-Soviet Russia. Ultimately, Oleinik seeks to provide an alternative to mainstream economic analyses of power.

About the Author Anton N Oleinik is Associate Professor of Sociology at Memorial University of Newfoundland, where his research interests include institutional economics, political sociology, economic sociology, science studies and mixed research methods. He has published widely in Russian, French and English, with recent publications including Knowledge and Networking: On Communication in the Social Sciences (2014) and Market as a Weapon: the Socio-Economic Machinery of Dominance in Russia (2011).
