James M. Kouzes, Barry Z. Posner, Elaine Biech : The Leadership Challenge: Activities Book (J-B Leadership Challenge: Kouzes/Posner) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Leadership Challenge: Activities Book (J-B Leadership Challenge: Kouzes/Posner):

But I can't believe I wasted 40 bucks on this book of "activities." Hidden in the 106 exercises are a couple of gems. However, most of them follow the pattern of create a small group, ask these 3 questions, report out, and record what you learned. The book seems impressive in its size but it's written in a huge font. The authors of each exercise, their bios and their contact info take up a sizable chunk of the book. Seems like shameless advertising to me. If I had never attended or a facilitated a team offsite before, I might have learned something. This book is way too basic and does not do any justice to the fine work of Kouzes and Posner.4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Compiled by training and consulting expert Elaine Biech, this new Leadership Challenge resource provides practical information and tools for demonstrating and teaching The Five Practices of Exemplary Leadership to audiences both new to or already familiar with the model. Filled with 75 experiential learning activities and games, each keyed to a specific practice(s), this book is an excellent addition to a facilitator's existing The Leadership Challenge and the Leadership Practices Inventory (LPI) or other leadership development program. This book will feature contributions from experienced Leadership Challenge facilitators and other greats in the training industry.
